

DOMINION SOUND PUBLISHING

Official Label Bios

SHORT LABEL BIO

Dominion Sound Publishing is an independent Bay Area music label founded by artist and engineer Tacer. The label focuses on cinematic hip-hop, global storytelling, and artist-first development. Rooted in UK grit and West Coast rhythm, Dominion Sound merges precision, innovation, and high-energy sound design to create releases built for impact.

MEDIUM LABEL BIO

Dominion Sound Publishing is a Bay Area–based independent label and creative studio founded by artist and engineer Tacer. Built on a fusion of UK grime roots and California's cinematic energy, the label crafts bold, high-impact hip-hop that blends technical delivery with immersive sound design. Dominion Sound champions artistic integrity, innovation, and emotional depth, supporting artists who push boundaries and bring global perspectives to modern rap. The label delivers recording, creative direction, and sonic development under one vision: music engineered not just to be heard, but to be felt.

FULL LABEL BIO

Dominion Sound Publishing is an independent music label and creative studio founded by UK-born, Bay Area–based artist and engineer Tacer. Dominion Sound blends the precision of UK grime, the bounce of California rhythm, and the depth of film-inspired storytelling, creating a unique sonic environment where artists can shape bold, high-impact narratives. As both founder and flagship artist, Tacer established Dominion Sound to challenge the boundaries of modern rap and provide a space where stories are engineered with care, intention, and world-class quality.

ABOUT DOMINION SOUND PUBLISHING

Dominion Sound Publishing is an independent label and creative studio based in the Bay Area, focusing on cinematic hip-hop, global storytelling, and artist-first development. The label blends UK grit, California rhythm, and film-inspired sound design, delivering music built for emotional and sonic impact.